

A Racer's Guide to the new RSYC website

Welcome to the RSYC and to our new website. We hope you'll find it easy to navigate and find all the information you need but here's a short guide to help you find your way around.

The website address hasn't changed: It's www.rsyc.org.uk

The new site can now remember you boat details so you don't have to repeat them each time you enter a race. To do this you must use a log-in: Please see pages 6 & 7 of this guide for details.

Menus

The new site home page has a menu for [Home], [Racing], [Cruising], [Training], etc. Clicking on [Racing] takes you to the racing pages and a sub-menu containing [News], [Diary], [Races], [Entry], [Results], [Resources] & [Crew]

Page Layouts

The pages (other than [Entry] and [Results]) follow a standard format. Here's the [News] page as an example:

The Racing Pages

Here's a quick guide to the information you'll find on each of the RSYC Racing pages

NEWS

A page of articles about recent and up-coming events:

DIARY

A calendar of the full year's events, both on and off the water as a list and as a PDF file:

RACES

A page of information specifically about forthcoming races plus NoRs and SIs:

ENTRY

A page that leads to a new single race entry form for all our fully crewed and double handed events. If you are not logged-in to the site you'll see this page:

Once you're logged-in (see pages 6 & 7 below for a new account log-in guide), you'll see this page:

This is the new race entry form.

If you've only just created your new account it will only remember the name and contact details you've just supplied.

But once you've entered one race, it will remember your boat details too.

Please be sure to check them each time especially if you've changed any gear on the boat.

When you've completed the form, please click on the [Submit] button and you'll be taken to the payment pages.
