Notes

Please note that the category of joint membership applies to spouse or partners in an established relationship and residing together at the same address.

Full membership - Following interview for full membership, names of applicants will be put forward to the House Committee for ballot. If elected to membership, applicants will be notified in writing. Full members can fly the Club ensign and are eligible to attend the AGM and to Vote. Children and grandchildren under the age of 18 whose details are provided below, or subsequently, are included in Full Membership.

Provisional membership – This will be confirmed immediately on receipt of this application and your subscription invoice issued. However, eligibility to fly the Club ensign and to vote is confirmed only after election to full membership.

Reduced fees are available for applicants aged 18 to 34 years, and also for applicants who are overseas for 6 months or more and reside at an overseas address. (Please contact the Membership Secretary for details)

All Club Members benefit from the Club’s affiliation with Yacht Clubs in the UK and Overseas. Please see rsyc.org.uk for full details of membership options and benefits.
